

SEEKING COMMUNITY

On any given night in Minnesota, there are approximately 200 GLBT youth who are homeless.
(based on Wilder Research 2006)

One of the ways that the Twin Cities' community is addressing this problem is through the GLBT Host Home Program of Avenues for Homeless Youth, which offers an exciting approach to providing homeless gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender youth with safe homes. As volunteers of the program, adults open their homes and their hearts to young people who need and are looking for a healthy and nurturing connection. If you are interested in hearing more about this community-based program, please come to one of the following informational meetings:

Wednesday, April 15, 7:45pm-9:45pm
@ Common Roots Cafe
2558 Lyndale Avenue South
Minneapolis, MN 55405
www.commonrootscafe.com

or

Thursday, April 16, 7:30pm-9:30pm
@ Midtown YWCA
2121 East Lake Street
Minneapolis, MN 55407
<http://www.ywca-minneapolis.org/>

Come learn about the history of the GLBT Host Home Program and about the application and screening process for potential volunteers. You will also have an opportunity to hear from hosts who shared their homes with youth. See you there!
